

Montcalm County Habitat for Humanity

Criminal Background Check Policy

1.0 PURPOSE

As a ministry, Montcalm County Habitat for Humanity values the safety of children, our employees, volunteers and the families we serve. We want to take prudent measures to protect our human and material resources.

2.0 POLICY

Montcalm County Habitat for Humanity requires that criminal background checks be conducted for all potential partner families, board members, employees and volunteers, and in particular, those who may have unsupervised contact with a child, the elderly or persons with disabilities. Montcalm County Habitat for Humanity reserves the right to recheck criminal backgrounds at anytime during the homebuilding process, course of employment and/or service.

Any person who does not consent to a criminal background check will not be permitted to become a partner family, work and/or volunteer with Montcalm County Habitat for Humanity.

2.1 DISQUALIFICATION CRITERIA

A previous conviction may disqualify an applicant from homeownership, employment, or board members and volunteers from service with Montcalm County Habitat for Humanity. In determining eligibility, Montcalm County Habitat for Humanity, in its sole discretion, may consider several factors, including, without limitation, the:

- nature, duties and responsibilities of the position;
- nature of the conviction and whether children were involved;
- time elapsed since the offense;
- extent to which the offense may affect the person's fitness or ability to perform the duties or responsibilities of the position;
- age of the candidate when the illegal activity occurred;
- number of convictions (if more than one);
- any information produced by the person, or produced on the person's behalf demonstrating rehabilitation and good conduct. Arizona, California, Illinois, Nevada, New Jersey and New York issue certificates of rehabilitation for former convicts;
- whether hiring, transferring, promoting or partnering with the applicant and/or candidate would pose a risk to the organization;
- whether the state's public policy encourages employment of persons who have been convicted of crimes;
- whether the state's public policy encourages homeownership of persons who have been convicted of crimes;
- the nature of the build, i.e., proximity of houses, mixed use communities, etc.; and/or
- any other factor the affiliate deems relevant to the decision.

2.2 EXAMPLES OF DISQUALIFICATION WARRANTED

If a person withholds information or falsifies information pertaining to previous convictions, the person may be disqualified from further consideration.

The following list provides some examples in which Montcalm County Habitat for Humanity may, within its sole discretion, determine an individual to be ineligible for homeownership, employment and/or service:

- embezzlement or fraud conviction;
- stalking conviction;
- murder and/or assault conviction; and/or
- burglary conviction.

This list is not exhaustive and is for illustrative purposes only. Montcalm County Habitat for Humanity reserves the right to weigh disqualification criteria on a case-by-case basis and to make selection decisions in its sole discretion. Disqualification may extend to any partner family member and to any position with Montcalm County Habitat for Humanity.

2.3 EMPLOYMENT OFFER CONTINGENT ON CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK

In the employment context, Montcalm County Habitat for Humanity may extend an offer of employment to an applicant that is contingent on the completion of the criminal background check. However, the applicant may not start work before the criminal background check and the final employment and/or service eligibility decision has been made by Montcalm County Habitat for Humanity personnel and/or Board of Directors.
